Dear Admiral Holloway:

As you know, there are a number of personnel from the military services assigned to duty with the Central Intelligence Agency. As individuals, and as a group, they make an extremely valuable contribution to our work and we are grateful to the Department of the Navy for its cooperation in arranging for naval personnel to serve with us.

It has occurred to me that you and members of your staff who are concerned with the selection of personnel for assignment to this Agency might appreciate a briefing on our organization, mission, and functions in order to better understand our requirements for and use of military personnel.

I should like to invite you and those members of your staff who are concerned with this problem to such a briefing on 10 September 1957. If you could join us for lunch at 1230 hours and remain thereafter for a briefing until about 1500 hours, I am sure that it would be mutually beneficial.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Acting Director

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Cabell

Attached hereto are proposed letters to General O'Donnell and General Booth similar to the one which you have already signed to Admiral Holloway in connection with our proposed briefings.

Also attached is a proposed letter to General Erskine advising him of these briefings and inviting him, Colonel Lansdale, and Colonel Stewart each to attend one briefing.

Request three signatures and return of the letters to me so that I may have them delivered by hand.
